Brexit

Current Position

- UK is leaving the EU Customs Union & is leaving the Single Market on 29th March 2019
- Transition Agreement agreed in Principle to 31 December 2020.....
- What will a post Brexit Agreement Look Like??
- A Free Trade Agreement as Frictionless and Tariff Free as possible (UK)
- A Customs Partnership?
- WTO?

Issues Facing Business

- Dependency on UK Market
- Uncertainty about Sterling
- Increased Competition internally
- People
- Strategic Sourcing Issues
 - Border Delays
 - Cost of Import
- Customs Capability and Understanding

Planning Ahead

BREXIT - Issues facing Exporters

01

Increased controls on Cross Border Trade

02

Controls on Exports and Imports through Sea and Air Ports

03

Import/Export Declaration requirements

04

Risk of tariffs - dependent on the type of trade agreement (if any) the UK negotiate with the EU

05

Introduction of non-Tariff Barriers

06

Payment of Import VAT (as opposed to intra- EU VAT rules)

07

Deferred Payment Requirements and Comprehensive Guarantees

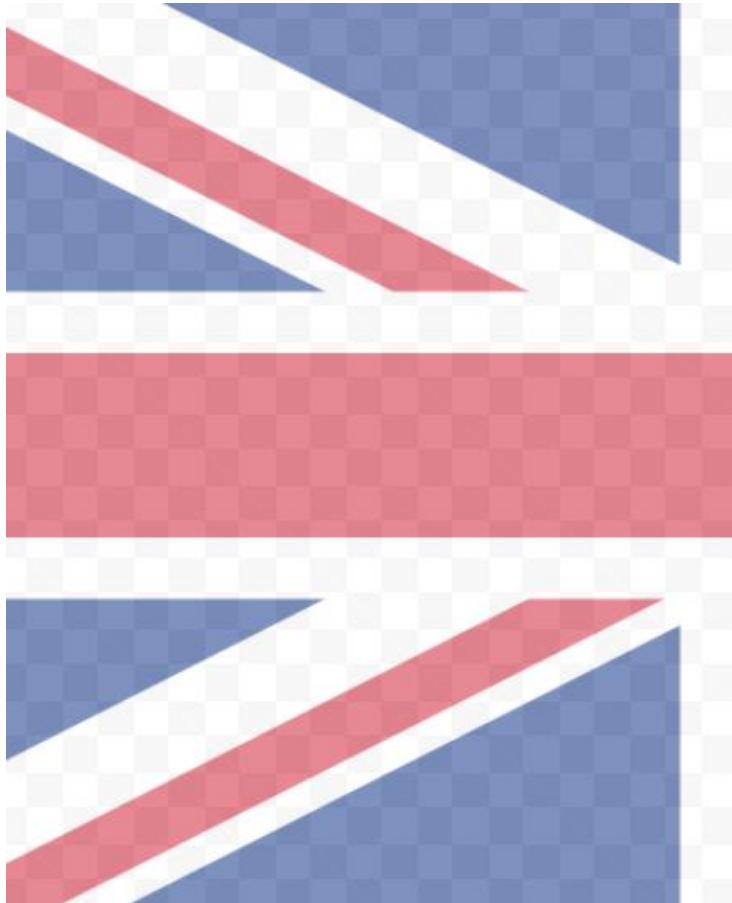

- All leading to:

- Cash flow impact
- Increased costs
- Delays
- Difficulties in accessing supplies
